

Application to vary Accreditation or AGDIS Approval form

- This form is used by Accredited entities/entities who are approved to participate in the AGDIS to change the name of the entity as it is displayed on the Accredited Entities Register/AGDIS register.
- Entities can seek to change the name of the entity, as well as the specific services that they are accredited/approved to provide.
- Please be aware that the system is only classified to hold information at official sensitive level and should be considered when entering information into the application.
- Refer to the ACCC's Privacy Policy which sets out what we will do with your information when you submit an application.

Detail existing names that you are applying to change

Provide new name which is to be displayed in the Accredited Entities Register and if applicable the AGDIS Register

Do you have a preferred date from when the name change should take effect?

Yes No

If yes, Provide preferred date the name change should take effect

If yes, Provide supporting reasons for effective date request

Provide attestation from accountable executive supporting this application

Review Application

Please review application to ensure information is correct